ing a softball game practice session at Torrance Park, May 2. He asserted his left foot became wedged between a sprinkler head and a board while he was running. The resulting fall caused two fractures of the left leg, he claims. Owens charged "negligence" of city employees caused the "dangerous and defective" condition at the park.

The other claim was filed for $5000 in behalf of Mrs. Helen M. Vowles for a factured arm and other injuries allegedly suffered in a fall in an alley southeast of Sartori St. and El Prado.

She claimed the fall was caused by a hole in the pavement.

Employees Vote

City councilmen announced the official voting tabulation after canvassing the election.

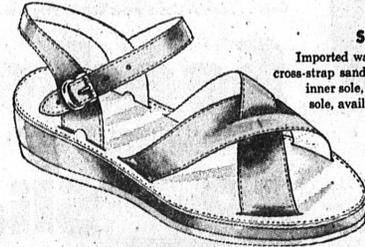

By an overwhelming majority, city employees voted in favor of having social security benefits added to their state retirement pension plan.

With 196 of the eligible 217 city employees casting ballots, 16 voted "yes." Only 35 added "no" votes.

Water department, firemen and policemen were not included in the plan.
